CONTRACT PRICE LIST

Waterloo, Nebr., 1912

M
 62.57

Hill W. Tracy Esq.

Dear Sirs: We submit you below our Contract Prices on 1912 crop Vine Seeds. All orders are booked subject to crop yields, to loss or damage by fire or other contingencies beyond our control, and to pro rata deliveries in event of short or unmerchantable crops. Seeds to be well fanned and screened and of good merchantable quality in appearance and germination.

We give no warranty, express or implied, as to purity, description, quality, productiveness or any other matter of any Seeds we send out, and we will not in any way be responsible for same or for the crops grown therefrom.

Deliveries f.o.b. Waterloo as early as practicable after harvest, not later than January 31st, 1913. Bags charged extra at wholesale value Waterloo. Terms of payment: Net 60 days from invoice, with liberal cash discount offered on invoice for earlier payment.

We give our best attention to the production of these crops and ask for your orders in the belief that you will find the goods SATISFACTORY. Respectfully,

CHAUNCEY P. COY & SON,
 (Harry G. Coy, surviving member.)
